

Automatik System Check

On-site-inspection of pelletizing equipment by Automatik experts

Today's omnipresent deadline and cost pressure makes maintaining of a reliable production essential. Unplanned machine downtime can be caused by the smallest failures and produce high costs in the end. To prevent those situations, we offer you the Automatik System Check.

Your benefits

- Prevention of unplanned machine downtime
- Increase of production reliability
- Reduction of maintenance expenses

Automatik System Check

On-site-inspection of pelletizing equipment by Automatik experts

The Automatik System Check includes the inspection of the mechanical and electrical components of your machinery on site by an experienced service technician.

The inspection follows a logically structured checklist and therefore allows to determine the condition of your machinery fast and uncomplicated. After the inspection you receive an detailed report describing the condition of your machinery and with recommendations on probably necessary preventive measures to maintain a high machine availability.

Inspection of the mechanical...

...and electrical...

...components of all pelletizer types.

Procedure

- Analysis of the machine condition by an experienced service technician
- Detailed assessment of the machinery
- Providing a basis for planning of future maintenance measures

Scope of service

- Visual inspection of the complete pelletizing system according to machinespecific checklists
- Documentation of the machinery condition in a detailed inspection report
- Recommendations of preventive measures to maintain high system availability

Advantages

- Prevention of unplanned production downtime
- Planning certainty for future maintenance measures
- Securing system availability
- Prevention of consequential damages, like image loss or delivery problems due to machine failure
- Increase of the overall machinery lifetime by periodical inspections
- Reduction of repair and spare part costs
- Synergy effects through exchange of experiences between service technician and machine operator

Should you have any questions, please contact us by phone or email.